

A musical for young people by PAUL HARRINGTON, SUSAN HARRINGTON AND JUDITH WATTS.

THE RAINBOW MAN

ALL:

Thrown like a shooting star in my vast sleep
I opened my eyes to take a peep
There for all the world to see
His promise stretched from you to me
In blazing colours that brightly flame
Someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man again
Yes, I hope that someday soon
Beyond life's deep lagoon
We'll see the man who walks in clouds of shining
rain
Yes, someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man
again, again

Where the rippling river meets the rolling sea
He'll whisper all his words to you and me
Where the white wings of doves beat
We'll never touch the ground with our feet
There beyond where the sun meets the rain
Someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man again
Yes, I hope that someday soon
Beyond life's deep lagoon
We'll see the man who walks in clouds of shining
rain
Yes, someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man
again, again,
Again, and again and again, again . . .

NOAH NOAH

THAT'S

MY

NAME

ALL:

Noah Noah
He was in his bed
And the Lord said
And the Lord said

VOICE:

Build me an ark

NOAH:

Build you a what?

VOICE:

Build me an ark

NOAH:

What in the dark?

VOICE:

No, build me an ark
I want you to build me an ark

ALL:

Noah Noah
He was in his bed
And the Lord said

VOICE:

The world's gone bad
And I'm very sad
I'm sending a flood

NOAH:

Sending some mud?

VOICE:

No a great flood

NOAH:

But I can't float

VOICE:

I want you to build a mighty boat

ALL:

Noah Noah
He was in his bed
And the Lord said
And the Lord said

VOICE:

Every creature you can find
Two of each and every kind
Into the ark

NOAH:

What, even the lark?

VOICE:

Yes even the lark

NOAH:

Ooh what a lark!

VOICE:

I want you to build me an ark

ALL:

Noah Noah
He awoke in his bed
And holding his head
To his wife he said

NOAH:

I've gone crazy, I've gone mad
I've got to build us an ark

MRS NOAH:

What, in the dark?

NOAH:

No build an ark

MRS NOAH:

An ark in the park?

NOAH:

I'll make my mark
The Lord wants me to build an ark

MRS NOAH:

Noah, Noah

ALL:

His wife she said

MRS NOAH:

Don't be ridiculous
You're a fool
You can't build an ark,
You're too small

NOAH:

Too small?

MRS NOAH:

Well not very tall

NOAH:

Not very tall?

MRS NOAH:

And I'm not keen on the idea at all!

NOAH:

Noah Noah
Is that my name?

ALL:

Yes it's still the same

NOAH:

This is the strangest dream of my life
Caused a bloomin' row with the wife
Is it all a silly game?
Who is going to take the blame?
I'll build your ark
'Cause Noah is my name . . .

NOAH:

Noah Noah
Is that my name?

ALL:

Yes it's still the same

NOAH:

I'm sorry I kept you
Awake half the night
But it's so different in the light

MRS NOAH:

In the light

NOAH:

I'm so glad I have sight

MRS NOAH:
You have sight?

NOAH:
The Lord's on our side
So we'll be alright!

TWENTIES CHORUS:
Although the Lord may be on his side
We don't know if we want to come on this ride
To him it seems so very clear
But we're not so keen on the whole idea

PERHAPS MAYBE

ALL:
Noah says we're all slowly dying
From lack of love we are all crying
Noah knows all our worries and strife
He's going to take us to a new life
He wants to build an enormous boat
How does he think he will keep it afloat?
He has no scales no charts no maps
He seems so sure, who knows perhaps . . .

REFRAIN:
Who knows perhaps maybe?
Does he just see what he wants to see?
Who knows perhaps maybe?
Does he believe in you and me?
Who knows perhaps maybe?

He talks of clouded colours in the sky
We can't seem to see them though we try
Noah what's going on in your head?
Perhaps you should take a rest, stay in bed
All those creatures in one big boat
These ideas seem to us so very remote
Will this whole dream just collapse?
He seems so sure who knows perhaps . . .

(REFRAIN)

Noah you see is our trusted friend
We'll all stick by him to the end
What can he borrow what ropes can he mend
Is it a fashion, is it a trend?
We can't help smiling, we don't want to offend
We're sure he's off his rocker, gone round the bend!
Now he's given us sailor's caps
He seems so sure who knows perhaps . . .

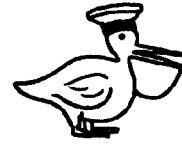

(REFRAIN)

SPOKEN:
Perhaps we ought to give it a go
'Cos I'm sure Noah knows, you know

NOAH HAS THE KNOWHOW

ALL:
(REFRAIN):
Noah has the knowhow
Noah ain't no ordinary man
Noah knows you know, you know, he knows (repeat)

BOATYARD FOREMAN (SPOKEN):
We'll tell of the tale of Noah
As happened in days gone by

How he had visions and fancies
That's right of rainbows int' sky
One day running to his fellows
He said help me build an ark
Well imagine us lads and lasses
Looking at each other by gum it were a lark
What a jolly fellow we thought
To make such frivolity and fun
For he knew we liked such sport
Aye it were funny how we got caught
We soon realised he weren't joking
That he were serious minded it weren't no game to him

We said yes 'cos we were out of work
And we hadn't a penny to our name
T'were a beautiful day for boatbuilding
As we gathered us one by one
We began by chopping down some trees
As we all started singing this happy song:
Noah has the knowhow and Noah has the plan . . .

ALL:
(REFRAIN)

BOATYARD FOREMAN (SPOKEN):

We thought Noah was noble
So stately and grand
As he stood there smiling
With a plank of wood in his hand
The length must be three hundred cubits
One, two, three, four give me that saw
Five, six, seven, add some more
Is this the ceiling or the floor?
Aye there's nothing like nails for knocking

But you can tell an amateur
There's nothing like a door for locking
When you don't want it secure
We were told by Great Noah
To pitch it yes inside and out
Aye like good old Noah
It would be so strong and stout
I says to my mate Harry
I reckon we're nuts, you see
This 'ere boat will never float
But then this song came back to me:
Noah has the knowhow and Noah has the plan . . .

ALL:
(REFRAIN)

BOATYARD FOREMAN (SPOKEN):

To make an ark of gopher wood
Was all he asked of us
All that noise, moans and groans
Ee you've never heard such a fuss
I was high up like ont' scaffold
And I saw this bird go by Well I 'spect you can guess what happened
Aye it caught me right int' eye
So I shouts down to Noah
This will be biggest boat ever built
But I hate to say it old fellah
This bit at back got a tilt
Don't worry says Noah
It'll be alright when it's afloat
It will not tilt and anyway you won't Get wet with a waterproof coat
By gum I wish I's as clever as that Even when he's up a tree
He seems to know his stuff
Then that song came back to me:
Noah has the knowhow and Noah has the plan . . .

ALL:
(REFRAIN)

BOATYARD FOREMAN (SPOKEN):

When the ark was finished we had a party
Well as a sort of celebration
Never have seen so many people
Everyone found a new relation
Noah stopped muttering of water and rations
Let's all have a cup of tea
Then he came and sat beside us
This seagull set right on his knee
Thanks to you all he said
For believing in my dream
It were tough going I know
'Cos I know you weren't all that keen
We'll never forget how we all laughed
Aye and that wonderful look on Noah's face
It were like we had found new friends
Who we knew we could never replace
It were a Sunday morning
Suddenly this fellow breaks into a ditty
In honour of our friend Noah
I think you'll agree it's quite pretty:
Noah has the knowhow and Noah has the plan . . .

ALL:
(REFRAIN)

TWENTIES CHORUS:

Noah collected every creature from all the earth
A male and female to each berth
Every animal that he could find
'Cos they would be drowned if left behind
He went out with a rope and net
Carefully catching whatever he could get Everything that crawled or flew
You should have seen him get them
Two by two by two . . .

TWO BY TWO

ALL:

Ba – doo, Ba – doo, Ba – doo, Ba – doo
Two by two, Two by two
From the snail to the cockatoo
From the tiger to the kangaroo
From the lion to the cat
From the leopard to the rat
From the hippo to the dog
From the crocodile to the water-hog
From the hen to the snake
From the bull to that big old drake
From the hen to the snake
From the bull to the drake
From the hen to the snake
From the bull to the drake
From the rabbit to the hare
From the giraffe to the grizzly bear
From the rabbit to the hare
From the giraffe to the bear
From the rabbit to the hare
From the giraffe to the bear
From the fox to the chimp
From the fox to the chimpanzee
From the fox to the chimp
From the elephant to the bee
From the fox to the chimp
From the elephant to the bee
From the fox to the chimp
From the elephant to the bee

BEE SONG

VOICE:

Everything that's on the earth
Tell me, does that mean me?
For I'm a humble worker
A little honey bee . . .

PUNK BEES (REFRAIN):

I'm a honey
I'm a honey
I'm a honey bee
Buzz buzz buzzer me
Buzz buzz buzzer me
Buzzer me

He says honey, come home for tea
Who does he think he is kidding, you or me
Don't keep gawping at my body
No one can take my stripes away from me

(REFRAIN)

I know he thinks he is smarter than me
Can't he see there ain't no fee for loving me
Those bright white teeth keep shining at me
Now I know you're laughing at me

Bye bye honey, bye bye honey honey bee
Bee, bee, bee, bee . . . (Repeat and fade)

SPOKEN:

Hey there, did you feel a drip?
Here comes the rain, quick!

FALLING RAIN

DUET:

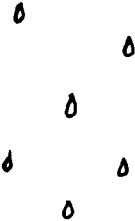

Here comes the rain
Singing in my ears again
The sky is falling
Can't you hear it calling?

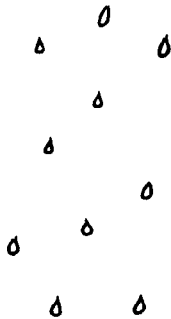

Echoes that softly pace
Raindrops are catching
Seeds of heaven on my face
Raindrops are falling

Wish upon a raindrop
Its magic will come true
God blessed the rain
As He first blessed you
The rain is singing
The spring wash of love
Drips like gems
Drops gentle as a dove

All our pain
Distilled into falling rain
Trickling again and again
The falling seeds of rain
Here comes the rain
Singing in my ears again
The sky is falling
Can't you hear it calling?
The sky is falling
Can't you hear it calling?

SPOKEN:

We all thought it was a small shower
But it seems to be getting heavier by the hour!

INDIAN RAIN DANCE

We are the rain splash splash splash
With our light we can flash pow-pow pow-pow
With our thunder we can crash pow-pow pow-pow

MY BABY WON'T STOP CRYING

NOAH AND MRS NOAH:

My baby is crying, what can I do?
Oh will you help me, oh will you?
My baby won't stop crying
Can't stand it no more
Oh will you help me will you help me will you?
The rain keeps on falling through my back door
The rain keeps on falling right through my back door

My baby is crying what can I do?
Oh will you help me, will you help me, will you?

I want you close to me
That's all I know
I want you all the time, because darling I love you so
My baby's crying, what can I do?
Oh will you help me, oh will you?
My baby won't stop crying
Can't stand it no more
Oh will you help me, will you help me, will you?

SPOKEN:

We'll sing to your baby
And then your baby won't cry

BABY DON'T CRY

ALL:

Hush gentle baby, don't you cry
And we'll sing you a lullaby
Dreaming of daisies splashed with dew
Apple blossom and skies of blue
Dimpled and soft in your cradle you lie
Tender to touch as the clouds that go by
We'll rock and swing you till you're asleep
No dropping of tears in your slumber so deep
Oh so deep, oh so deep

Hush gentle baby, don't you cry
And we'll sing you a lullaby
Legs all bare and crumpled-up toes
Soft pink cheeks and a small freckled nose
Your smile so sweet like a soft petalled rose
Rocked in a cradle of ribbons and bows
We'll rock and swing you till you're asleep
No dropping of tears in your slumber so deep
Oh so deep, oh so deep

Hush gentle baby don't you cry
And we'll sing you a lullaby
Hope you see bright stars and yellow moons
Hope you walk in leafy lanes and sing many tunes
In slumber deep you turn and sigh
Your fingers curl up to say good-bye
We'll rock and swing you till you're asleep
No dropping of tears in your slumber so deep
Oh so deep, oh so deep
Hush, hush, go to sleep . . . (Repeat and fade)

ZEBRA SONG

ALL:

So many crazy creatures maybe I'm in a dream
Boy o boy you should see, the one that I've just seen
Must be the maddest one of, the lot for he has got Black and white stripes from the bottom to the top
from the bottom to the top
from the bottom to the top
from the bottom to the top

He's not like a penguin or a bouncy kangaroo
I bet he's not so different, from me and you
I guess he has a mind, a heart, and even a tail too
Inside that skin he's just the same as me and you
same as me and you
same as me and you
same as me and you

Sometimes I realise how different I am
But aren't we all part, of the world's great plan?
Those stripes may bother me, and you but I feel sure
That he needs lots of love just like we all do
just like we all do
just like we all do
just like we all do

REFRAIN:

Gonna lay down, lay down our spirits at his feet
Gonna lay down, lay down our spirits at his feet
Selah selah away away

When shall we be anchored and brave?
When shall we fear no wind or wave?

REFRAIN:

Draw nearer and hold us fast
Keep us till the storm is past

REFRAIN:

We sink deep as we try to understand
Lead Zion's people by the hand

REFRAIN:

Wipe our eyes, give us sight
Protect us in this stormy night

REFRAIN:

With him we'll wait till glory day
We know he'll wash all our blues away

REFRAIN:

TWENTIES CHORUS:

Soon their sadness grew to hate
Noah must suffer you know it was his fate
The rain still fell the winds they blew
Noah was worried and so was his crew . . .

HATE SONG

CREW OF ARK:

Noah we're fed up with you
Noah we're fed up with you
We're sick of your dreams and rainbows too
We're sick of your dreams and rainbows too
We don't like the rations
We can't stand Mrs Noah's stew
It makes us sick, and so do you

Noah we're cheesed off with you
Noah we're cheesed off with you
Face it your dreams they won't come true
Face it your dreams they won't come true
We should have drowned and gone to hell
We should have put you in a cell
All those animals we can't stand the smell

Noah we've had enough of you
Noah we've had enough of you
We're sick of your dreams and rainbows too
We're sick of your dreams and rainbows too
We've got nasty plans for you
We're going to throw you overboard
Chase him down the gang-plank with a sword

TWENTIES CHORUS:

I say Captain, what you going to do?
Looks like there's a mutiny amongst your crew
'Spect you wish you were comfy back at home
Before the flood left you hated and alone

DARK SIDE OF THE MOON

NOAH:

I am on the dark side of the moon
Looking in on myself
Hearing rain beating its sad tune
I don't believe in dreams anymore
I can't see the light on the shore
I just can't see clearly anymore

REFRAIN (ALL)

Moon-shadow take me take me
Moon-shadow as darker grows the night
Blind me shadow for I no longer want sight
Moon-shadow take me take me . . .

NOAH:

Where is the light from the open door?
Looking in on myself
Will the morning light scatter my gloom?
Can't see rainbows in the shadow of the moon
Have I become a child of the night
Are dreams illusions passing from sight?

REFRAIN (ALL)

NOAH:

I'm afraid of the pain I hide inside
Looking in on myself
Have I ever loved? Have I really tried?
I think of dreams of tomorrow
My twilight eyes are filled with sorrow
You laugh and smile and I feel you stare

REFRAIN (ALL)

NOAH:

Take me shadow for you don't care
Looking in on myself
No one'll miss me, I'm not rare
I'll pass like a stranger on the stair
I'll go in the shadow of the moon
I'll leave no trace but the rain's sad tune

DON'T LEAVE ME DREAMER

MRS NOAH:

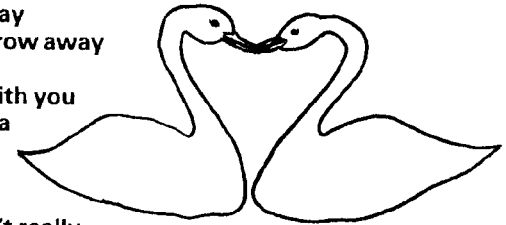

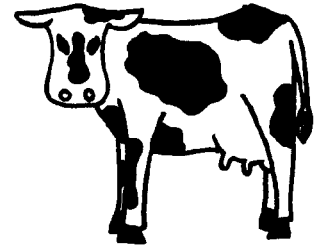

Don't leave me dreamer for I want you to stay
I don't care what they're saying about you
I believe in your dreams and rainbows too
So stay with me dreamer and I'll dream with you
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

MRS NOAH:

Don't leave me now I'm begging you to stay
Don't put your dreams in a paper bag to throw away
I believe in your dreams and rainbows too
So stay with me dreamer and I'll dream with you
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

MRS NOAH:

They say that you're unkind, that you don't really care
I know the love never shown, I see it everywhere
I believe in your dreams and rainbows too
So stay with me dreamer, and I'll dream with you
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

MRS NOAH:

I haven't had many of my own dreams come true
But I was blessed to love someone like you
I believe in your dreams and rainbows too
So stay with me dreamer and I'll dream with you
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

MRS NOAH:

Don't leave me now please, don't go far away
If you leave me now I won't last another day
I believe in your dreams and rainbows too
So stay with me dreamer and I'll dream with you.
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

NOAH:

I have looked in on myself for far too long
And I'm ashamed for I could not see
This gift that the Lord has given
This wonderful gift of you to me
(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

NOAH:

Perhaps if you believe in my dreams
The other will one day trust in them too

NOAH AND MRS NOAH:

So I'll stay with you dreamer friend
And together we'll dream our dreams through to the end

(ALL): Sha-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la-la

SPOKEN:

The rain began to leave off
Even Shem lost his bad cough
Is it dry? said Noah's wife
Yes, said Ham, we'll start a new life

Oh let me see please let me do,
Said Japheth to his brothers two
I can't believe the rain has stopped
Yes, said a rabbit, as by he hopped
Noah's Ark she landed well, very still she sat
Perched high on Mount Arrarat
(rata-ta-tata-ta-tat . . .)

TWENTIES CHORUS:

Windows were opened wide for everyone to see
Says Mrs Ham: I hope there's land beyond this sea
There are mountain tops follow my finger see
It's such a shock I need a cup of tea
Then came a squawk from the roof of the boat
Sounded like a chap with a frog in his throat
There must be land beyond the sea
I'll search it out, shouts the raven, send me!

THE RAVEN SONG

REFRAIN (ALL):

Send the raven 'cos he's ravin' mad
Send the raven 'cos he's ravin' mad
Send the raven 'cos he's ravin' mad
Ye, Ye, Ye-Ye-Ye-Ye

RAVEN:

I'm the raven they say I'm ravin' mad
You see I didn't have a proper dad
I'm the raven I'm a proper scruff
They say it's 'cos I was brought up tough

REFRAIN (ALL)

RAVEN:

Just didn't know why I was sent
But back and forth, forth and back I went Till I found a home beyond the sea
I'll tell you Mrs Raven's really proud of me

REFRAIN (ALL)

RAVEN:

Bet you never heard a raven sing
Bet you never knew I had a ring-a-ding
Well I got rhythm and I got the beat
Hey man I got tunes but I ain't elite

REFRAIN (ALL)

RAVEN:

I'm the raven they say I'm ravin' mad
They used to say I was a bit of a lad
Till Noah became my adopted Dad
Now we're the best of friends and I'm real glad

TWENTIES CHORUS:

Noah sent the dove to see if the land was dry
We all felt sad as we saw her fly
Taking all our hopes and dreams, we felt our tears roll down in streams
She fluttered round the ark for a minute or two Sad to go but she kept on smiling through
Up above the clouds we saw her fly as we waved our handkerchiefs on high

A SPECK OF DUST IN MY EYE

NOAH AND MRS NOAH:

Don't wish for the dreams
That have all gone by Think of the future
Where our dreams can fly

Spring turns its water wheel
The dove she learns to fly
The darkness is all gone
We are free to fly

The sky is turning
The clouds are left behind
My love for you
Will always be kind

The rain is over
The spring wash of love
White bird on the wing
Drops gentle as a dove

Will she find her rest?
White spirit on a silver sky
A white speck of dust
To my searching eye

Protected under feathers new
We are free to dream
She will return again
Bringing olive leaf green

TWENTIES CHORUS:

As we stood there gazing, what happened it's hard to tell
Who really knows but the rain changed colours as it fell

Way in the distance we heard a far-off noise
What a beautiful sound, it was Noah's voice

A PAINTED RAINBOW

ALL:

I'll paint a rainbow just for you, from yellow through to blue
The whole spectrum through, somehow you'll know it's just for you
Who knows you may notice me standing there, quivering in shadows dusty from care
Sad that you can't feel all my fears, the distance between us will be measured in tears

Alright I'll paint a RAINBOW
Alright I'll paint a RAINBOW
Alright I'll paint a RAINBOW
Paint a RAINBOW for you

I'll paint a sunset just for you, my blood tears are true
From red of night till morning hue, somehow you'll
know it's just for you
Where lips have spoke and remembered not, our love lived here is soon forgot
Where dark clouds scattered and rainbows shed, p'raps in golden light we'll tread

(REFRAIN): Alright I'll paint a SUNSET etc

I'll paint a sunrise just for you, sunlight in the morning new
Air sprinkled with drops of dew, somehow you'll
know it's just for you
I'll forgive cold winds that between us blew, all my paintings I'll leave to you
To scatter like bread the whole world through, you'll know that I sing this song just for you

(REFRAIN): Alright I'll paint a SUNRISE etc

(REFRAIN): Alright I'll paint a RAINBOW etc

ALL:

God hath set his bow in the sky
We'll go forth, live in peace and multiply
While the earth remains the harvest will increase
Summer, winter, day and night shall never cease

DRIFTING LIGHT

ALL:

We've dreamed of this day for so long
And now that the time has come
The world's glorious awakening has begun
The time of birds' singing has come
Bad times are over, a new day has begun
Now our fears have come and gone
We'll grow our vineyards again in the sun, we'll find rest

Slowly drifts the shadowing light
Turning the clock of our fears
Turning the night into daylight
Turning our laughter to tears
Turning the dusk into sunlight
Turning the seasons to years
Turning the seasons to years

How we have grown you and I
Soon we'll have new land, good and dry
Summer and winter will go on by
Our corn and flowers will grow strong and high We'll grieve not when our children marry and say goodbye

Whenever we see a rainbow in the sky
In that moment we'll hear each other sigh
We'll grow gracefully older together, you and I

TWENTIES CHORUS:

They all promenaded out from the ark
 Blinking in the sunlight, they'd come through the <sup>dark</sup> dark
 Onto dry land they stepped, Noah his wife and crew
 They all went out two by two by two . . .

TWO BY TWO

ALL:

Ba – doo, Ba – doo, Ba – doo, Ba – doo
 Two by two, Two by two
 From the snail to the cockatoo
 From the tiger to the kangaroo
 From the lion to the cat
 From the leopard to the rat
 From the hippo to the dog
 From the crocodile to the water-hog
 From the hen to the snake
 From the bull to that big old drake
 From the hen to the snake
 From the bull to the drake
 From the hen to the snake
 From the bull to the drake
 From the rabbit to the hare
 From the giraffe to the grizzly bear
 From the rabbit to the hare
 From the giraffe to the bear
 From the rabbit to the hare
 From the giraffe to the bear
 From the fox to the chimp
 From the fox to the chimpanzee
 From the fox to the chimp
 From the elephant to the bee
 From the fox to the chimp
 From the elephant to the bee
 From the fox to the chimp
 From the elephant to the bee
 Elephant to the bee – oh yeah!

ALL:

Every creature went forth into the world
 No one knew where they went or how they would fare
 But hen, duck, dog, cat, goat and cow
 These were given into Noah's special care
 But don't forget all those colours that brightly flame
 For someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man
 again
 There beyond where the sun meets the rain
 God keeps his promises again and again and again
 again
 Again and again and again and again and again and again and again

THE RAINBOW MAN

ALL:

Thrown like a shooting star in my vast sleep
 I opened my eyes to take a peep
 There for all the world to see
 His promise stretched from you to me
 In blazing colours that brightly flame
 Someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man again
 Yes, I hope that someday soon
 Beyond life's deep lagoon
 We'll see the man who walks in clouds of shining rain

Yes, someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man again, again

Where the rippling river meets the rolling sea
 He'll whisper all his words to you and me
 Where the white wings of doves beat
 We'll never touch the ground with our feet
 There beyond where the sun meets the rain
 Someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man again
 Yes, I hope that someday soon
 Beyond life's deep lagoon
 We'll see the man who walks in clouds of shining

rain
 Yes, someday soon we'll meet the Rainbow Man
 again, again
 Again, and again and again, again . . .
